

United States Ticket to Living Immigration and Revitalization Plan

Anonemis Research
Simenona Martinez
AnonemisResearch.com

United States Ticket to Living Immigration and Revitalization Plan

Overview

United States Ticket to Living Immigration and Revitalization Plan is initiative which relocates immigrants to Detroit, where the officials estimate 22,000 vacant houses in the city remain.

Natural opportunities for agricultural and carpentry needs will be required, a service which can be offered by skilled workers. This plan seeks to revitalize Detroit, offer housing, assist the American economy, revitalize industries and communities.

The possibility for work within the upcoming opportunities in the manufacturing boom of electrically operated vehicles in the very near future.

Anonemis Research

Simenona Martinez

AnonemisResearch.com